

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

An introducer sheath (30) having a short distal tip section (34,40) that is highly radiopaque. The distal tip section may be of FEP with 20% to 75% by weight tungsten particulate filler, and may be initially a separate member (40) and bonded to the sheath shaft distal end (32).